Glenwood High School
Glenwood, N.C.*

Foreword

The halls of Glenwood High School hold the momentous days of a school year. With this in mind, the Annual Staff of G.H.S. has tried to combine the joys, disappointments, hopes, and activities of this school year into a pictorial record of memories. We, the Nushka Staff, hope the following pages will recapture the numerous activities that have made the 1968 Nushka possible.

Glenwood Cheerleaders anxiously watch the clock in a tense moment of the game.

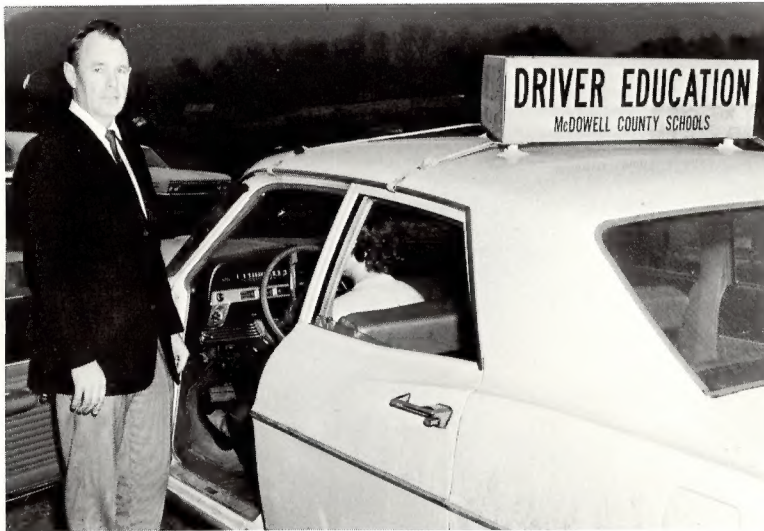

It takes a lot of effort and concentration to tackle those geometry theorems.

Why Edward, when are you going to beautify America and get a haircut?

Mr. David Webster observes Mike as he completes an experiment in the lab.

The Dragons and Dragonettes ranked first place in the County competition last year. As a result, the Dragons competed for the District trophy and ranked third.

We Dedicate

We the Senior Class of 1968, do hereby dedicate this edition of the NUSKA to MR. PAUL D. HUGHES.

We make this dedication with heartfelt gratitude for the endless number of services which he has rendered to us during the past two years. Mr. Hughes has proven himself a man of quality in the eyes of the school due to his devotion to the teaching profession. Upon us, his students, he has left the mark of kindness and consideration within our hearts. We are confident that he has left and will leave a valuable mark which will serve as a stepping stone to future generations. By his undying aspiration to help us find our places in life, we have searched a little more, and moved a step forward.

With humble appreciation, we echo a resounding "Thanks".

The Measure of A

All work and no play? Not this group! Lunch time is always a welcome for relaxation and time to have a few passes of basketball before that first tardy bell rings.

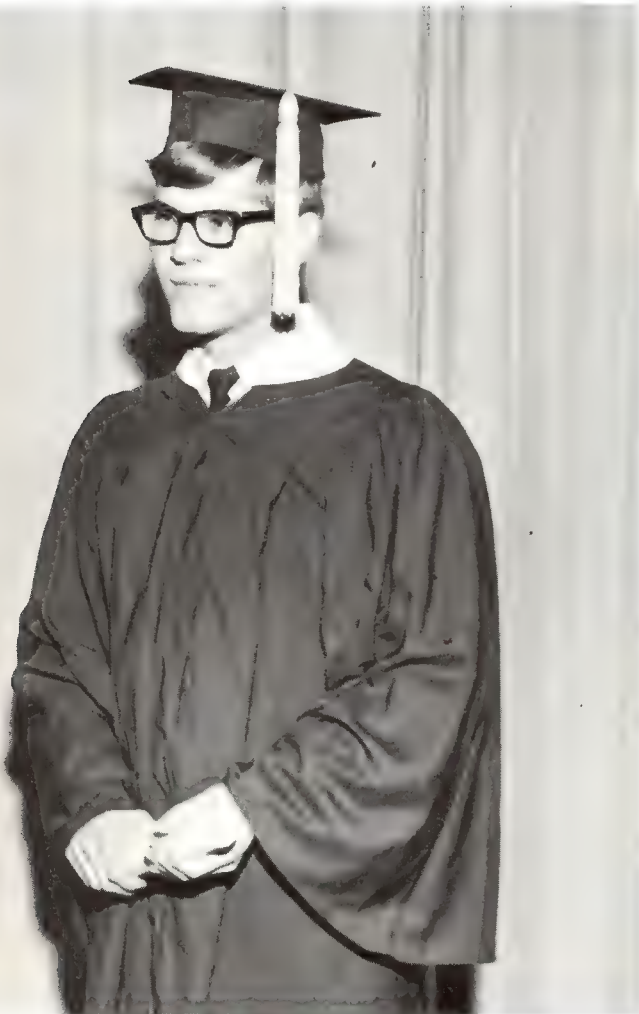

Mr. James Long undergoes a hard day in the life of a teacher, as he experiences the routine from his side of the desk.

Happy Life . . .

Students take time out for a run to the lunchroom hoping for a short line.

Happy memories have brought us along thus far, though graduation has a touch of sadness as well.

The custodians, Mr. James Condrey and Mrs. Clara Curtis, should be given much credit for the cleanliness and upkeep of Glenwood High.

School Secretary

Mrs. Verna Hensley

Mrs. Hensley, our school secretary, is the local "handy-man" of the school — collecting money, answering the phone, hunting lost students, lost books, lost "anythings", keeping records, sorting mail, even bandaging sore fingers. Her familiar, smiling face is an integral part of our life at Glenwood.

*Knowledge does not comprise all which is contained in the large term of education. The feelings are to be disciplined; the passions
are to be restrained;
true and worthy motives
are to be inspired; a profound religious feeling is to be instilled,
and pure morality
inculcated under all circumstances. All this is comprised in education.*

CLASS POEM

We, the Freshmen of '64,
Entered Glenwood in the spirit of fun
Happy and laughing the days away
Until the year was done.

Spring passed and fall comes again
Oh, how the days do pass
As school burdens begin once more
And we are in the Sophomore Class.

Another year goes by
We are Juniors at last
More knowledge is gathered in Until this year also joins the past.

We, the Class of '68
Have many memories to entwine
Now that the end is near
And we must leave dear Glenwood behind.

CLASS MOTTO

The measure of a happy life is not from the fewer or more suns we behold, the fewer or more breaths we draw, or meals we repeat but from the having once lived well, acted our part handsomely, and made our exit cheerfully.

CLASS COLORS

Blue and White

CLASS FLOWER

White Gladiolus

Editing a yearbook is a half-year task for those closely associated with it - the struggle to get the dummy sheets drawn up, and the pictures taken. With deadlines coming too soon for everyone, time is the most expensive thing.

Representatives attended a year-book clinic at Lees-McRae College in the spring. At this meeting, the representatives received ideas for producing a yearbook.

Without the assistance of Mrs. George Ann Weaver and Mrs. Margaret Norris, our advisors, no annual could be published efficiently. We are very fortunate to have them to fill this capacity.

Throughout the season the Dragons and Dragonettes have displayed these qualities as well as the determination and close teamwork that makes true champions. Their untiring efforts have given them the valuable experience that will aid them not only this year but in the years to come.*

The Dragons have had a winning season despite the fact that only two starters were back from last season. The Co-captains, Dean Nanney and Dickie Jarrett have led the attack against the opposition this year with lots of hustle from the team and the support of the Dragon fans.

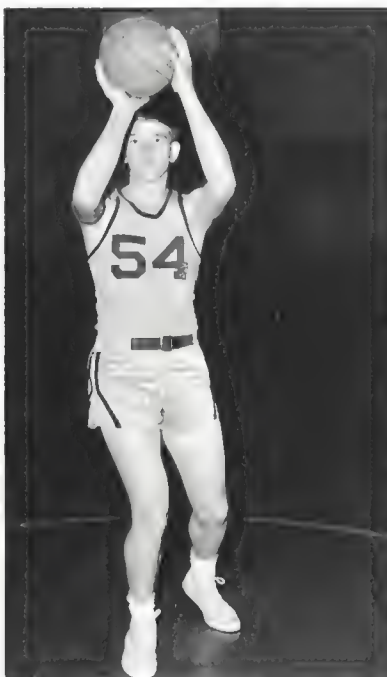

Coach Webster has worked the team to the top of the conference and an overall record which should not be overlooked. The team is looking forward to the county tournament with high hopes of bringing back the Championship trophy to the Dragons' den. Who knows, maybe a last second basket will win again!

CONGRATULATIONS

Electricity is the biggest bargain in your budget! While ways to use electricity go up, costs go down. There are now 162 residential uses of electricity to improve your standard of living, and they cost less to operate. Actually the average cost per unit of residential electricity has gone down more than one-third in the past ten years. Check for yourself: Divide the next bill you receive by the number of uses in and around your home. Then you'll see why Reddy's wage is the biggest bargain in your budget.

Editor's Message

The Nushka Staff has worked diligently attempting to capture a complete picture of the 1967 - 1968 school year. Much time, as well as hard work, has been carefully given to edit this year's Nushka. If it serves to keep memories fresh and new throughout the coming years, it has carried out its duties as an annual as well as relieved the constant moments of work.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the individuals who gave their time and their ability to make this annual possible. At times the pressures appeared intolerable and the deadlines hopeless, but in these strenuous moments Mrs. George Ann Weaver and Mrs. Margaret Norris willingly rendered their services.

As the pages of the 1968 Nushka are turned, I hope each student can recall some momentous event that will bring back a pleasant memory. I hope this year's Annual will accomplish this purpose not only in 1968 but also in the years that lie ahead. If this purpose is completed, the work will be relieved, the fun relived, and the 1968 Nushka will live on.
